INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON BAHÁ'Í LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES

LANDEGG INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

2-4 JANUARY 2003

In January 2003 Landegg International University will host an international conference to consider current issues in the development of Bahá'í libraries and archives. The conference seeks a broad audience: from those whose concerns are with professional standards and the development of academic collections, to community-based participants whose chief concerns are in the establishment and operation of Bahá'í libraries at the local or national level.

The Conference's principal themes include:

- The establishment of private libraries and archives: case studies
- Identification of development needs
- Issues in cataloguing, classification, and description
- Issues in preservation of electronic sources
- Issues in collection development

CALL FOR PAPERS

Persons interested in offering a presentation at this conference should submit a 250-word abstract to Mrs. Barbara Geisey (bgeisey@landegg.edu) by 15 September 2002.

Further information about the conference program and registration will be available on Landegg's Website.
